HKSH Christmas Party 2013 in Benefit of Operation Santa Claus Spreading Love in the Community

(26 February 2014 – Hong Kong) Hong Kong Sanatorium & Hospital (HKSH) has supported for five consecutive years the “Operation Santa Claus” (OSC), an annual charity campaign jointly organised by South China Morning Post (SCMP) and Radio Television Hong Kong (RTHK). The HKSH Christmas Party in benefit of OSC was held on 16th Dec 2013 to raise money for 18 beneficiaries in Hong Kong that chosen by OSC. Together with HKSH’s dollar-for-dollar support, the event finally raised over HK$789,000.

“We see the importance of the Operation Santa Claus which offers an opportunity for the Hospital not simply to raise funds, but also to spread love and joy to the needy people in the community,” commented Dr. Joseph Chan, Deputy Superintendent of HKSH.

Creative Fundraising Activities Made Donating Fun

The new fundraising activities included “Super Chef with Love”, “Art Jamming with Love” and “Departmental Charity Drinking Competition”. In Super Chef with Love, six super chefs tried their hands at cookery at the party. They were Dr. Walton Li, Medical Superintendent of HKSH, Dr. Joseph Chan, Deputy Superintendent of HKSH, Ms. Manbo Man, Director of Nursing Services of HKSH, Dr. Lee Nim Wang, Dr. Chan Ki Wing and Dr. Bone Tang, each of them serving their biggest donor with sizzling fried eggs and sausages. The total donation raised from this activity was over HK$270,000.

In Art Jamming with Love, an acrylic painting was stroked by members of the Clinical Governance Committee and was put on sale in auction. The painting highlighted the transformation of the Hospital over the past decades. The Christmas Party also featured with K-Actually, various tasty food stalls sponsored either solely or jointly by doctors, and charity bazaar etc., fully realising its commitment in “Teamwork”, one of the 3Ts concepts (i.e. Teaching, Teamwork and Trust) of HKSH.
