Hong Kong Sanatorium & Hospital
Wins Top Services Award 2011 in 'Private Health Care' Category

(29 June 2011, Hong Kong) Hong Kong Sanatorium & Hospital (HKSH) was presented Next Magazine's Top Services Award in the category 'Private Health Care' today. HKSH garnered the award twice, first in 2007 when the category 'Private Health Care' was first introduced, and this year when the category re-opened. This Award symbolizes our unwavering commitment to pursuing excellence as well as the public recognition on our top-quality service.

In adherence to the motto 'Quality in Service and Excellence in Care', HKSH spares no effort to ensure clinical and service excellence through the introduction of advanced medical technology, pleasant hospital environment and continuous professional training. HKSH is also committed to facilitating medical advances by promoting clinical research in wide-ranging disciplines, elevating the standard of Hong Kong's medical services to a new height.

Top Services Award is another second recognition by public votes HKSH obtained after Reader's Digest Trusted Brands Gold Award. "We are very delighted to be voted by the public to receive these prestigious honours. It means a lot to all of us at HKSH that we are the people's choice. HKSH will endeavour to realize the vision of becoming a 'Centre of Excellence' by providing ever-improving medical services and holistic care to the community." Dr. Joseph Chan, Deputy Medical Superintendent of HKSH concluded.
