(17 December 2012 – Hong Kong) Hong Kong Sanatorium & Hospital (HKSH) continues to offer support to “Operation Santa Claus” (OSC), an annual charity campaign jointly organized by South China Morning Post (SCMP) and Radio Television Hong Kong (RTHK). In addition to the annual Christmas Party in benefit of OSC, HKSH firstly introduced another fundraising event “K Actually” this year to raise money for 18 charity organizations in Hong Kong. Together with HKSH’s dollar-for-dollar support, the events raised HK$600,000 this year.

Fund Raising Campaign : Singing in Love

HKSH’s charity campaign in benefit of OSC was officiated at the K Actually night on 23 November by Dr. Walton Li, Medical Superintendent of HKSH, Dr. Joseph Chan, Deputy Medical Superintendent of HKSH and Chairperson of Village Club, Ms. Ellen Yeung, Manager of Charitable Giving of SCMP, and Mr. Andrew Dembina, Producer of RTHK Radio 3. After the kickoff ceremony, the event “K Actually” steered by Dr. Walton Li, as well as the committee members of the Village Volunteers, performed the Hospital’s song “My Blazing Sun”. In order to successfully motivate participants to enjoy the singing party, four special awards “Top Fundraiser”, “Best Performance”, “Best Singer” and “Best Costume” were introduced.

“Christmas is a festival of love. With the power of music, we sincerely hope that we can share love, care and support to the needy by our generous donation,” expressed Dr. Joseph Chan, Deputy Medical Superintendent of HKSH.

HKSH has been actively involved in OSC by running an annual charity Christmas Party since 2009. After months of preparation, HKSH organized the Christmas Party on 17 December, featuring with various tasty food stalls sponsored either solely or jointly by doctors, charity bazaar “Green Corner” and game zones etc., fully realizing our commitment in “Teamwork”, one of the 3Ts concepts (i.e. Teaching, Teamwork and Trust) of HKSH.
